TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Incorporation

The Alliance is organized as a non-profit mutual benefit corporation under the laws of the State of California. The Articles of Incorporation and Corporate Bylaws of the Alliance are set forth on the Alliance website, as such documents may be amended by the Alliance from time-to-time ("Corporate Documents"). By executing this Adopter Agreement, Adopter agrees to abide by the Corporate Documents. Adopter acknowledges that the Corporate Documents may be amended from time-to-time in accordance with the provisions of the Corporate Documents and as may be allowed by law. The Alliance has filed for tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and Adopter agrees not to engage in activities for or on behalf of the Alliance that may adversely affect the nonprofit or tax-exempt status of the Alliance.

2. Purposes of the Alliance

The Alliance is formed to promote the use of connected devices for consumer electronics, home and building automation, energy management, industrial controls, PC peripherals, medical sensor applications, toys and other related applications.

The purposes for which the Alliance is organized are to:

- (a) Bring about the existence of a broad range of interoperable consumer and business connected devices by promoting open industry specifications and standards;
- (b) Provide a forum and environment whereby members of the Alliance ("Members") may meet to approve suggested revisions and enhancements to Alliance specifications and standards; coordinate with appropriate agencies and bodies to align, promote and harmonize specifications and standards; and provide a forum whereby users may meet with developers and providers of related products and services to identify requirements for interoperability and general usability;
- (c) Educate the business and consumer communities as to the value, benefits and applications for connected devices and services through public statements, publications, trade shows demonstrations, seminar sponsorships and other programs established by the Alliance;
- (d) Protect the needs of business and consumers and increase competition among vendors by supporting the creation and implementation of uniform, industry-standard conformance test procedures and processes which assure the interoperability of connected devices and services;
- (e) Maintain relationships and liaison with educational institutions, government research institutes, other technology consortia, professional organizations, trade groups and other organizations that support and contribute to the development of Alliance specifications and standards; and

- (f) Foster competition in the development of new products and services based on Alliance's specifications developed and/or adopted by the Alliance in conformance with all applicable antitrust laws and regulations.

The Alliance and its Members shall individually and collectively be committed to open competition in the development of products, technology and services, and Members shall not be restricted in any way from designing, developing, marketing and/or procuring hardware, software, systems, technology or services. Implementation or use of specific Adopted Specifications is voluntary. No Member shall be required or obliged to implement Adopted Specifications by virtue of being a Member of the Alliance.

3. Participation as an Adopter; Dues and Fees

Subject to the terms of Section 9, upon acceptance of this Adopter Agreement by the Alliance and payment of the appropriate dues and/or fees, Adopter shall hold the status of an Adopter of the Alliance for a period of twelve (12) months commencing on the acceptance date. Subject to the terms of Section 9, Adopter may renew its Adopter status for subsequent twelve (12) month periods by paying any then-current annual dues and/or fees established by the Board of Directors. Failure to pay annual or specially assessed dues and/or fees when due shall result in termination and/or non-renewal of Adopter's membership pursuant to Section 9(d). Adopter dues and fees are non-refundable, except in the case of a distribution upon the event of a dissolution as set forth in the Corporate Bylaws. The Board of Directors may increase or decrease the annual dues and/or fees required of Adopters in accordance with the Corporate Bylaws. All dues and fees shall be used in furtherance of the purposes of the Alliance. Subject to the survival provisions of Section 9(e), upon expiration or termination of the Adopter's membership as an Adopter of the Alliance, all rights and privileges provided and/or granted to Adopter and/or any Affiliate of Adopter pursuant to Section 4 of this Adopter Agreement and/or pursuant to any policies and procedures of the Alliance shall terminate.

4. Duties and Rights of Adopters

The duties, rights, privileges and obligations of Adopters shall be determined by the Board of Directors from time-to-time. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, Adopter shall not be entitled to any voting rights with respect to the business or proceedings of the Alliance.

The designated contact and representative of Adopter is identified by Adopter on the first page of this Adopter Agreement. The designated representative of Adopter may be changed by Adopter from time-to-time upon prior written notice to the Alliance.

If Adopter is a consortium, association or other similar organization or otherwise has members or sponsors, the rights and privileges granted to Adopter as an Adopter shall extend only to Adopter, and not to Adopter's members or sponsors.

Such Adopter Confidential information shall be maintained by each Member of the Alliance in confidence with at least the same degree of care that it uses to protect its own proprietary information and in no event with less than reasonable care, and each Member of the Alliance that receives such Adopter Confidential information shall only use such Confidential information for the Alliance purpose for which it was submitted. In the event a Member of the Alliance breaches the obligation of confidentiality with respect to Confidential information of Adopter, the sole and exclusive remedy of Adopter shall be to seek recourse against the breaching Member of the Alliance and the Alliance shall have no liability with respect to such breach. Third parties seeking access to Adopter's Confidential information that has been provided to the Alliance must reach an agreement with Adopter as a condition for being provided the Adopter's Confidential information.
