AIMS:

2. The Awards aim at encouraging the production of films of aesthetic & technical excellence and social relevance contributing to the understanding and appreciation of cultures of different regions of the country in cinematic form, thereby also promoting unity and integrity of the nation. The awards also aim at encouraging the study and appreciation of cinema as an art form and dissemination of information and critical appreciation of this art form through publication of books, articles, reviews etc.

DEFINITIONS:

3. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,

(a) “Board” means the Central Board of Film Certification;

(b) “Directorate” means the Directorate of Film Festivals under the Ministry of Information & Broadcasting;

(c) “Awards” mean National Film Awards;

(d) “Producer” includes an individual producer, a production company, a Government Department or a Government recognized institute;

(e) “Right Holder” means the owner of the negative who is authorized to order prints of cinematographic films from the lab for a particular film and copyright holder of the film (in case of digital films).

ORGANISERS

4. The Awards will be organized by the Directorate of Film Festivals, or such other organization as may be notified from time to time, on behalf of the Government of India.

SECTIONS

5. The Awards will have the following sections:-

- (i) Feature Films; and
- (ii) Non-Feature Films
- (iii) Best Writing on Cinema

DADASAHEB PHALKE AWARD

6. In addition to the awards for Feature Films (Schedule I), Non-Feature Films (Schedule II), and Best Writing on Cinema, the Government of India will give an award called the Dadasaheb Phalke Award to a film personality for his/her outstanding contribution to the growth and development of Indian Cinema. The Award shall consist of a Swarna Kamal, a cash Prize of Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten lakhs only) and a shawl.

ELIGIBILITY

7.1 Only those persons whose names are on the credit titles of the film and are normally residing and working in India will be eligible for the Awards. In the case of co-productions involving a foreign entity, the following conditions should be fulfilled:

- (i) At least one of the co-producers must be an Indian entity.
- (ii) The Indian entity should be registered in India or be a citizen of India.
- (iii) The title of the film should be registered as an Indian film title.
- (iv) The Director should be an Indian citizen. The cast and technicians should be predominantly Indian nationals.
