Research pioneers

UofL is home to one of only 20 centers in the nation designated as a National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism (NIAAA) Alcohol Research Center. The National Institutes of Health awarded UofL a grant of nearly $8 million to set up the center, which is the only one in the country to focus its studies on how dietary nutrition and alcohol interact.

STARS Gold

UofL is the only Kentucky college or university to earn a gold rating from the Association for the Advancement of Sustainability in Higher Education.

Source: Association for the Advancement of Sustainability in Higher Education, 2016

Sustainability

UofL now offers two degrees in sustainability:

- Bachelor of Arts in Sustainability (new for fall 2017)
- Master of Interdisciplinary Studies: Concentration in Sustainability

Engaged with Community

The Carnegie Foundation recognized UofL with its Community Engagement Classification in consecutive terms in 2010 and again in 2015. The designation denotes institutions that improve teaching and learning, produce research that makes a difference in communities, and feature a spirit of partnership within their civic and academic missions.

BRIAN BUFORD

5/5 Stars

UofL is one of only 16 schools nationally to be named among America's "Best of the Best" LGBTQ-friendly universities in Campus Pride Index, and the only university in the south to earn designation.

The Thinker

The first large-scale cast of French sculptor Auguste Rodin's "The Thinker" has resided in front of Grawemeyer Hall since 1949. In 2012, the sculpture was completely refinished.
