This statement is to disclose information regarding my affiliations and financial support while writing the paper “Physician Practice Organization and Negotiated Prices: Evidence from State Law Changes,” co-authored with Naomi Hausman.

I received no financial support directly for the production of this research. However, parts of the work were done while I was a Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Scholar in Health Policy at the University of California, Berkeley. Funding from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation was used to purchase data used in this paper.

This project obtained IRB approval through NBER.
